Students, don't miss this opportunity to participate in the fifth annual CIS College and University Fair in San Francisco! You will meet representatives from some of the most innovative and exciting colleges and universities in the world. This year, we expect about 60 colleges and universities from at least 8 different countries to be in attendance. All of these colleges and universities are interested in meeting motivated 11th and 12th grade students. This college fair is especially targeted to appeal to the International Baccalaureate student.

High Schools, if your high school is interested in participating in this event, please send Ashley Rochman (ashleyr@frenchamericansf.org) at the French-American International School an e-mail letting us know your students will attend the fair. Please direct questions about the event to her as well.

Please go to www.internationalsf.org for directions to the French-American International School.
